Episode 4 Discussion Questions

1. Simon confides in Eden that he expects to be arrested for double-crossing Quintus, and Eden asks, "Where is your faith?" Has there been a moment in your life when you've thought there was absolutely no way that something would work out, but God made it happen?
2. Overpowered by the miracle that filled his boat with fish, Simon finally submits when Jesus says, "Follow me." What's your come-to-Jesus story?
I was _____, but God _____, and now _____.
3. Matthew spies on Simon for Quintus and then is amazed by the fishing miracle he witnesses. Likewise, Nicodemus follows Jesus' work from a distance and is intrigued. What sort of impact do you think the news of miracles and Jesus – the man – would have had on the people of Capernaum and beyond at that time?
4. The moment Simon realized he was completely unworthy to be in Jesus' presence was also the moment that he left everything behind to follow him. In what area of your life do you find it the most difficult to relinquish control (Relationships, Job, Future plans, something else)? What in your life would you need to change or leave behind to become a disciple in today's world?
