

The Chosen

Season 1, Episode 8 (Finale)

I Am He

A look back to Canaan in 1952 BC shows Jacob and his sons digging a well which produced water despite many saying it would not. Fast forward 1,978 years later to AD 26 in the same place where we see Photima, a Samaritan shunned by her village, drawing water from that same well. Jesus heals Eden's mother, and Gaius visits Matthew's parents and then tells Quintus that Matthew has gone. As Jesus and the disciples prepare to leave Capernaum, Nicodemus weeps. Jesus meets Photima at Jacob's well and tells her that he is the Messiah.

Episode 8 Discussion Questions

1. The opening scene shows Jacob being led by God to the place where water can be found. As the scene closes, Jacob tells Yassib, "We didn't choose God, he chose us." Do you believe that God has ever lead you to any of your choices in life?
2. Along their journey from Capernaum, Jesus and the disciples traveled to Samaria where Jesus found Photina whom he had chosen to be the first to hear that he is the Messiah because she needed his guidance. Can you think of a time in your life when you were on a wrong track and God caused you to alter your course?
3. When Photina realizes that Jesus is the Messiah, she is full of joy and declares that she must go tell everyone. How often do you feel moved to share your faith with others in your world?
4. As Jesus and the disciples enjoy their feast at Matthew's home, Yussif and his Pharisee friend confront him for eating with sinners. We have seen that he chooses the various underdogs of society to include in his ministry. Have you ever had the chance to bring Jesus to such people in your own world to receive help? If not, would you do so, given the chance? How might you do that?
