

The Chosen

Season 3, Episode 1

Homecoming

Jesus and the disciples return to Capernaum after their time away. The growing group of followers faces new challenges as excitement about Jesus' ministry collides with everyday struggles and doubts. This episode highlights the tension between the hope Jesus brings and the human conflicts that arise in the midst of community. This episode invites us to see how following Jesus transforms ordinary life, even when it brings tension, uncertainty, or struggle.

Featured Characters

Jesus, Simon Peter, Eden, Matthew, Mary Magdalene, Thomas, Ramah, Gaius (the Roman centurion)

Discussion Questions

1. The people of Capernaum don't know quite what to make of Jesus' ministry. Where do you see yourself in this episode — among the confident, the uncertain, or the questioning?
2. How do I respond when faith collides with the everyday difficulties of life?
3. In what ways is Jesus calling me to bring hope and healing into my own community?
4. What does it mean to trust Jesus' authority not only in miracles but also in daily living?

Scriptures and Texts

- Luke 4:31–32 – Jesus teaches with authority in Capernaum.
- Matthew 8:14–17 – Jesus heals Peter's mother-in-law and many others.
- Psalm 30:2 – "O Lord my God, I cried to you for help, and you have healed me."
