

The Chosen

Season 3, Episode 2

Two-by-Two

Jesus sends out the disciples in pairs to preach, heal, and proclaim the Kingdom of God. The disciples wrestle with doubts, fears, and the weight of responsibility, yet also discover the joy of relying fully on God's provision. Discipleship means stepping out in faith, trusting God's provision, and carrying Christ's message of healing and hope into the world. This episode emphasizes the call to trust, obedience, and mission.

Featured Characters

Jesus, Simon Peter, Matthew, Mary Magdalene, Thomas, Ramah, Andrew, The Twelve Disciples

Discussion Questions

1. The disciples worry that it is too soon for them to be on their own – that they are not yet ready to do what Jesus does. Where is Jesus calling you to step out in faith, even if you feel unprepared?
2. When the disciples learn that they are to travel and do God's work without extra clothing or provisions, they are confused and concerned. How do you experience God's provision when you rely less on yourself and more on Him?
3. How can you bring Christ's healing and peace into the lives of those around you?
4. When you think about how you might step out in faith, what fears or doubts hold you back from living as a disciple sent into the world?

Scriptures and Texts

- Mark 6:7–13 – Jesus sends the disciples out two by two with authority to heal and teach.
- Luke 9:1–6 – The mission of the Twelve to proclaim the Kingdom and heal the sick.
- Matthew 10:5–15 – Jesus instructs the disciples on their mission and reliance on God's provision.

What Comes Next

Season 3, Episode 3

“Physician, Heal Yourself”

In the next episode, the disciples' mission begins to bear fruit, but challenges and opposition await as the cost of following Jesus becomes more evident.
