

The Chosen

Season 3, Episode 4

Clean, Part 1

This episode portrays Jesus encountering those considered unclean by society. A woman suffering for years with illness seeks healing in faith, while others struggle with the boundaries of religious law and compassion. The tension between ritual purity and Jesus' radical mercy becomes central to the story.

Featured Characters

Jesus, Simon Peter, Eden, Matthew, Jairus (synagogue leader), The bleeding woman, Pharisees and community members

Discussion Questions

- Have you ever felt “unclean” or unworthy before God? How do you bring that to Jesus?
- Society and culture often impose rules, traditions, or expectations on us. Have there been times when those pressures have gotten in the way of your showing compassion for others?
- Where is Jesus calling you to show mercy even when others might hesitate?
- What does this story teach you about faith's boldness in reaching toward Christ?

Scriptures and Texts

- Mark 5:25–34 – The woman with the flow of blood reaches out to touch Jesus' garment.
- Leviticus 15:25–27 – Laws concerning ritual impurity.
- Matthew 9:18–22 – Jesus responds to faith in the midst of suffering.

What Comes Next

Season 3, Episode 5

“Clean, Part 2”

In the next episode, the story of healing and compassion continues, showing how faith and desperation bring people closer to Jesus, even in the face of resistance and misunderstanding.