

The Chosen

Season 3, Episode 7

Ears to Hear

In this episode, Jesus teaches through parables, inviting listeners to deeper reflection on the mysteries of the Kingdom of God. Some lean in with faith, while others turn away in confusion or resistance. The disciples themselves wrestle with what it means to understand and live out His words.

Featured Characters

Jesus, Simon Peter, Matthew, Mary Magdalene, Thomas, Ramah, The disciples, Crowds and religious leaders

Discussion Questions

- As Jesus teaches with parables, some followers don't grasp the message; and even the disciples wonder how to interpret the lessons. How open is your heart to receive God's Word, even when it challenges you?
- But then there are times when the message is very clear. When have you experienced God's Word unmistakably taking root and bearing fruit in your life?
- What obstacles or distractions keep you from truly hearing what God is saying to you?
- How can you cultivate a spirit that listens more deeply to Christ each day?

Scriptures and Texts

- Matthew 13:1–23 – Parable of the sower and the purpose of parables.
- Isaiah 6:8–10 – Hearing but not understanding, seeing but not perceiving.
- Mark 4:9 – He who has ears to hear, let him hear.

What Comes Next

Season 3, Episode 8

“Sustenance”

As Jesus' ministry builds toward a dramatic moment, His words and actions will draw an even sharper line between faith and rejection.